

Jean Lamy

Mr Jean Lamy is Deputy Director of Diplomatic and Consular Privileges and Immunities - State Protocol and Diplomatic Events - Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs. A former ambassador, Jean Lamy is a French diplomat with extensive experience of international cooperation, particularly on scientific and economic issues, especially within the framework of the European Union and the United Nations.

He was Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Agence pour la sécurité de la navigation aérienne en Afrique et à Madagascar (ASECNA, 2020-2023), Head of the European Union Delegation to Burkina Faso (2015-2019) and French Ambassador to Burundi (2010-2013). He has worked mainly in Africa and Europe, and at the Permanent Representation to the United Nations in New York. In Paris, his posts have included Deputy Director for Energy-Transport-Infrastructure and Deputy Director for Energy-Climate at the Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs, Head of International Strategy at the Directorate-General for Energy and Raw Materials at the Ministry of the Economy and Finance, and Chairman of the International Committee of the French Geological and Mining Research Bureau (BRGM).